

Position Description

Consumer Participant for <insert project or role>

About the project

Use plain language to describe your project

About the role

Provide an overview of what is involved in the role. For example, meeting attendance, grant applications, ethics, confidentiality requirements, research design and protocols, undertaking research, writing reports/ journals/ briefings. Include duration and expected hours.

Who should apply?

Information about the ideal applicants (e.g., experience, interests, demographics)

Why should you be interested?

Provide information about why this is of interest to the participant. (What will they gain/ contribute from being involved in this research? e.g. skills, impact, contribute to new treatments)

Support

Provide details of any support offered to the consumer (e.g., consumer mentor, interpreters, contact person, research buddy, debriefing).

Find out more

Insert contact details, website or other relevant information including application details and closing date. To be accompanied by an EOI form or details of how to express interest.